

Webinar

Empowering Women in Disaster Risk Reduction through Heritage

Date: 10th of April at 12:00 - 13:30 CEST

Location: Online

Webinar | Empowering Women in Disaster Risk Reduction through Heritage

The webinar “Empowering Women in Disaster Risk Reduction through Heritage” presents a timely and crucial exploration of the intersection between gender, heritage, and resilience-building strategies in the face of disasters.

This virtual event brings together esteemed experts from various disciplines to discuss groundbreaking approaches that leverage natural and cultural heritage for enhancing community resilience, with a particular focus on empowering women’s roles in this vital arena.

Highlighting the significance of inclusivity and gender equality, the speakers will delve into the pivotal contributions of women in science and their indispensable role in bridging the gender gap within the field of disaster risk reduction.

Date: April 10th

Time: 12:00 to 13:30 CEST

Registration: HERE

Agenda

Welcome and introduction | Laurence Gillois, UNESCO Representation Office to the EU

Ways toward building resilience | Faduma Ali, UNESCO Disaster Risk Reduction Unit

Women in Science, closing the gender gap | Ana Persic, UNESCO’s Science, Technology and Innovation Policy Section

Gender and Disaster Risk Reduction | Mary Nyasimi, UNESCO Office in Nairobi and Regional Bureau for Science

Community resilience through Heritage in Europe | Rosa Tamborrino, Department of Regional and Urban Studies and Planning in Politecnico di Torino

* Moderated by Irina Pavlova, UNESCO Liaison Office to the EU

