About DISTant Talks

This seminar cycle was triggered by the need for several PhD students to deepen and question aspects of critical research. The diverse and multidisciplinary group proposes 4-afternoon conversations on subjects and research approaches of particular interest for each of the organizers, aiming at stimulating a larger discussion with the academic community and beyond. The shared ground of the seminars is the intention to always propose a different topic, inviting scholars who are open to discussion.

DISTant Talks is curated by DIST PhD Students:
