

Politecnico
di Torino

CENTRO STUDI VERA COMOLI.
CENTRE FOR HISTORY, HERITAGE AND INCLUSIVE INNOVATION

Heritage as a Project

Inaugural lecture cycle

Mercoledì 4 dicembre 2024 | ore 16:00

Salone d'Onore, Castello del Valentino | Viale Mattioli 39, Torino

Saluti istituzionali

Elena Baralis

Prorettore Politecnico di Torino

Ouverture

Rosa Tamborrino

Lecture

Gábor Sonkoly

Heritage as a Project.
The first decade of the European Heritage Label

Gábor Sonkoly is currently serving as a Directeur d'études at the École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (EHESS) in Paris for the academic year 2024–2025. Since 2018, he has been a Professor of History at the History Institute, Faculty of Humanities, Eötvös Loránd University (ELTE), Budapest. He has also served as Chair of the Panel for the European Heritage Label at the European Commission in Brussels since 2020. Since 2019, he has directed the Doctoral School for Historical Science at the Faculty of Humanities, ELTE, and has led the Doctoral Programme for Interdisciplinary History since 2007. He is the Task Leader of the ongoing Horizon 2020 project "UNCHARTED: Understanding, Capturing, and Fostering the Societal Value of Culture". Additionally, he serves as the Academic Coordinator and Project Leader of the EACEA Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degree (EMJM) project "TEMA+ European Territories: Heritage and Development".